

Lieutenant Colonel Jerone H. Bostick

LTC Bostick entered active military service in 1977 as a private at Fort Dix, New Jersey. He was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in 1984. He has an educational background in both Architecture and Engineering. He attended both civilian and military schools which include the University of Southwest Louisiana (Architecture), the U.S. Army Engineer School (Basic and Advance Officer's course), the Combined Arms and Service Support School, the Command and General Staff College.

LTC Bostick has extensive Army Reserve experience, most recently with the 377th Theatre Sustainment Command in Belle Chasse, Louisiana, as the Installations Officer. He served overseas in Kuwait as engineer officer in support of GWOT. In his civilian career, LTC Bostick has held positions in architectural firms around the country as architect, project manager and construction administrator. Currently, LTC Bostick is serving on active duty with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers as Deputy Commander of the Louisiana Recovery Field Office.

LTC Bostick's military awards include the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the Good Conduct Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Campaign Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, the Army Service Medal, the Armed Forces Reserve Medal, and the Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal.

LTC Bostick and his wife Cheryl hail from Louisiana and are residents of Kenner, Louisiana. They have four children and four grandchildren.